Presentation Overview

- Beneficiaries and project partners;
- Project Objectives;
- Expected results and main project activities;
- Project organisation;
- Next steps;

Beneficiary and Project Partners

- The official beneficiary of this EU-funded project is the Ministry of Economic Development RF together with the Ministry of Energy RF;
- The project partners are the Regional Administrations of the Sverdlovsk, Rostov and Tver regions in which the project will be implemented;

Project Objectives

- Increasing investments in energy efficiency using the additional benefits from Kyoto mechanisms (JI);
- Policy support to regional administrations for implementation of federal policies: integrated regional fuel and energy balances and GHG policies and targets;

Expected results and activities (1)

- Identified and developed 5 investment projects;
- Preparation Project Design Documents;
- Industrial energy efficiency;
- Public sector energy efficiency (DH-systems, landfill-methane capture, waste water treatment facility etc.)

Expected results and activities (2)

- Development and evaluation of the integrated regional fuel and energy balance in international format;
- Based on analysis of Russian statistics (11-TER, 6-TP, 22-ZhKH etc.) but verified by other sources of information;
- Use of ENERGYBAL model for efficiency and economic analysis;
- Preparation of Marginal Energy Efficiency curves;

Expected results and activities (3)

- Regional GHG-Inventory carried out;
- Energy projections from ENERGYBAL-model used as baseline and development of Marginal GHG-Abatement Curves;
- Emission reduction measures developed;
- Voluntary GHG-targets developed (based on federal policies);

Expected results and activities (4)

- Recommendations on regional EE and GHG policies;
- Training experts on EE and GHG-tools;
- Training experts on JI-investment preparation;

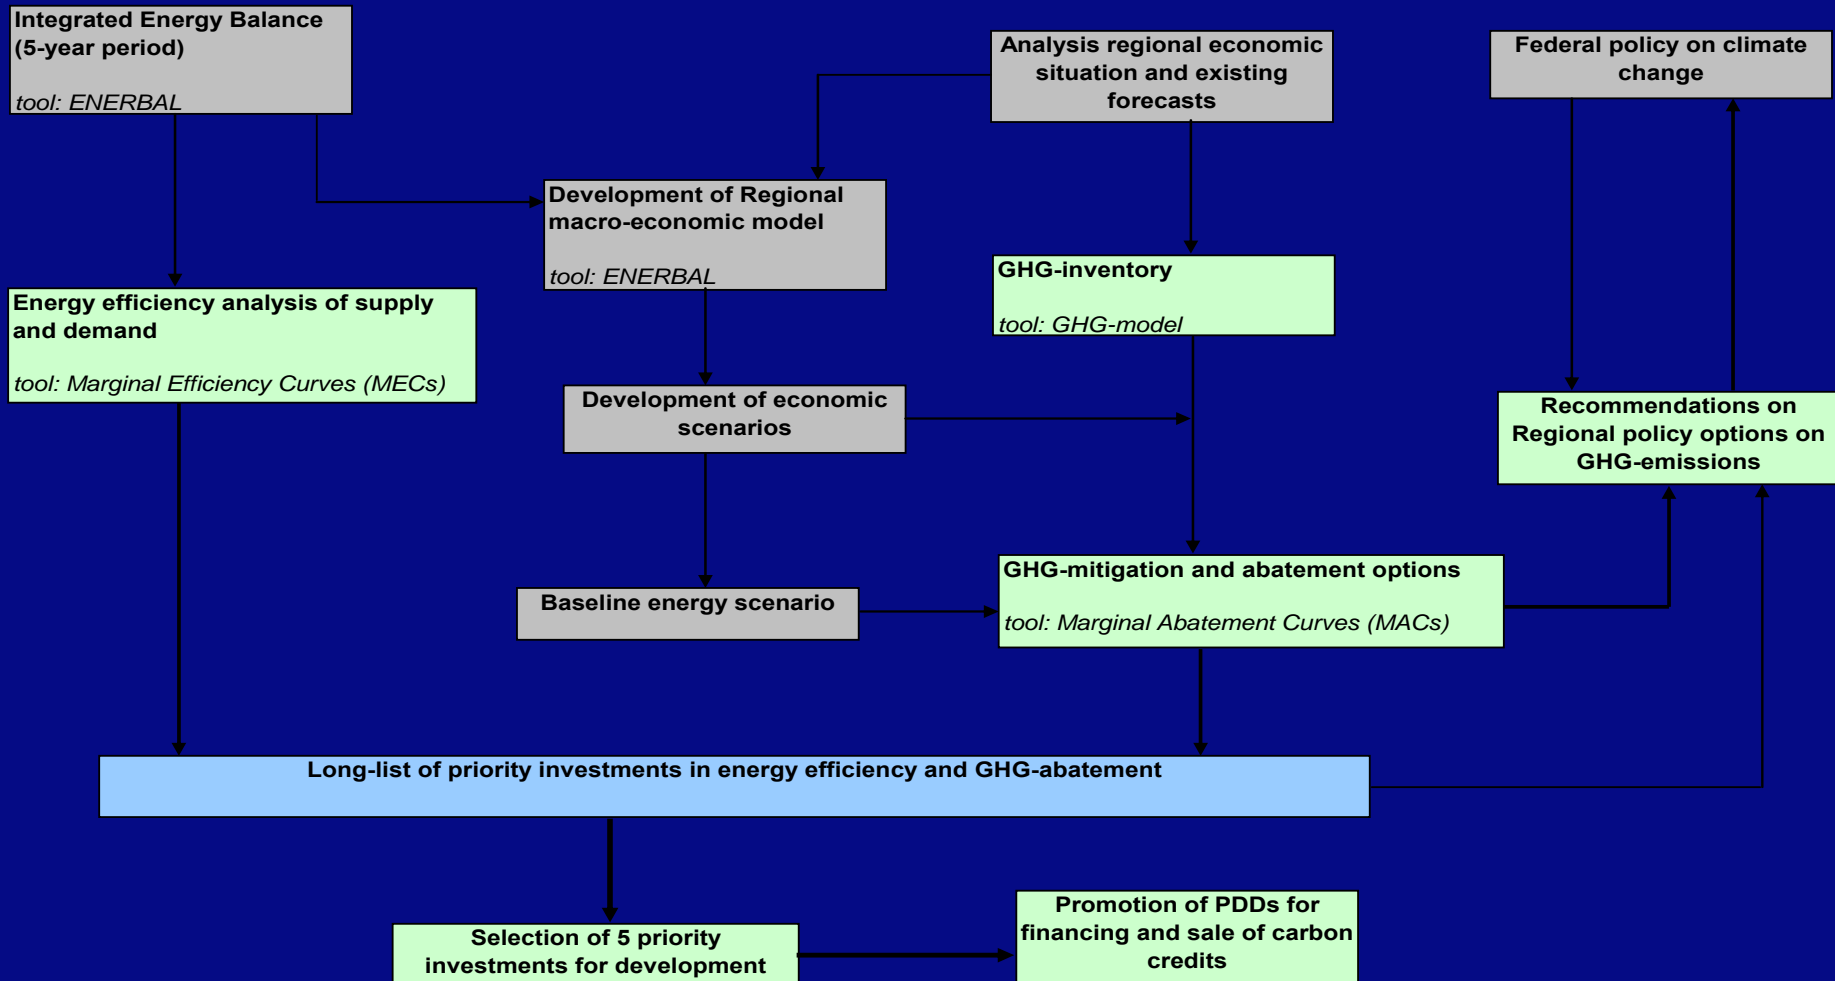

Project organisation

- Team of key-experts will work closely with the designated regional administration's departments/ministries;
- Regional experts coordinate and support project activities;
- Results will be discussed and disseminated through meetings and workshops both in the regions and in Moscow;
- Important regional organisations will be asked to participate in the project activities;
